

DIFFERENT CULTURES

Cultures don't mix. We each do things our own way, and if we try to find one way for everyone, no one gets to have it their way. We can "agree to disagree" but then we can't make decisions for society at large. We are distinct peoples, and each needs its own space. Is "Australia for Australians" a racist statement, or self-preservation? "Race riots" in Paris, England, Germany and Denmark show us that cultures do not coexist. Our politicians want more taxpayers and do not care about our best interests. The only way we can remain ourselves and to end the violence, permanently, is to separate cultures, ethnicities and religions NOW.

 Australian Nihilist Underground Society
<http://www.anus.com/tribes/au>

DIFFERENT RULES

DIFFERENT CULTURES

Cultures don't mix. We each do things our own way, and if we try to find one way for everyone, no one gets to have it their way. We can "agree to disagree" but then we can't make decisions for society at large. We are distinct peoples, and each needs its own space. Is "Australia for Australians" a racist statement, or self-preservation? "Race riots" in Paris, England, Germany and Denmark show us that cultures do not coexist. Our politicians want more taxpayers and do not care about our best interests. The only way we can remain ourselves and to end the violence, permanently, is to separate cultures, ethnicities and religions NOW.

 Australian Nihilist Underground Society
<http://www.anus.com/tribes/au>

DIFFERENT RULES